Sharing the Joy of the GOSPEL for Generations

GREETINGS FROM ARCHBISHOP BLAIR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am happy to announce that the Archbishop's Annual Appeal for 2019 is dedicated to the theme "Sharing the Joy of the Gospel for Generations."

"Sharing" reminds us of a fundamental truth of our faith—that it is "more blessed to give than to receive." In the 6th chapter of Mark's Gospel Jesus feeds thousands of people who came to hear him, but he does not do so out of thin air. Rather, he miraculously multiplies what the disciples have brought to him; namely, a few loaves and fish. A little in the right hands, given in faith, can work miracles.

"The Joy of the Gospel" We like to speak of happiness, but Jesus in the Gospel speaks at a deeper level about joy—a joy that the world cannot give. The joy of the Gospel is the joy of knowing, loving and serving the God we cannot see by knowing, loving and serving the neighbor we can see. Jesus says, "What you do to the least of these you do to me." So whether it's acts of spiritual, moral or material mercy that we carry out in Christ's name, we can be assured of receiving the gift of joy that He alone can give.

"...for Generations" Today, more than ever, we recognize that people of every age group have need of the spiritual and material healing that the ministry of the Church provides. Pope Francis says we must be "a field hospital for the wounded," despite the Church's own wounds resulting from sin. And in the Church herself, we are challenged to engage the younger generation in continuing and furthering our charitable mission.

The 2019 Archbishop's Annual Appeal presents us with a unique opportunity to combine all of our individual gifts in order to accomplish even more together as one family of faith.

I invite you to share generously of your time, talent, and treasure that God has bestowed on you, so together we can enrich, nurture, and foster the spiritual, moral and material well-being of individuals, families, and communities throughout Hartford, New Haven, and Litchfield Counties.

Please review this brochure for some examples of the way that our Annual Appeal succeeds in Sharing the Joy of the Gospel for Generations.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Leonard P. Blair

Most Reverend Leonard P. Blair
Archbishop of Hartford

CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY

Material Needs

We are taught through the Gospel about the importance of providing for the least of our brothers and sisters. Our Archdiocesan family of faith does that every day. It is only through the generosity of our donors to the Appeal that we are able to continue to fund Archdiocesan ministries that provide life's necessities to so many: a warm meal, a bag of groceries, a safe place to sleep, or a place to turn for guidance and support.

One ministry that makes a difference is the Vicariate Outreach Program. Since 1997 it has distributed more than $16 million to local organizations. Last year, for the third consecutive year, more than $1 million was allocated to charities in Hartford, New Haven and Litchfield Counties. Thanks to the extraordinary generosity of Appeal donors, last year, the Vicariate Outreach Program provided funding to over 200 different organizations. A little in the right hands, given in the right spirit, can go a very long way.

In greater New Haven, Columbus House opened its doors in 1982 to provide meals and shelter for single adults in New Haven. Over the years, they shifted their focus from simply managing homelessness to ending it.

Columbus House in New Haven, Branford Counseling Center, Habitat of Greater New Haven - Sleeping Giant Build, Guilford Interfaith Ministries, Master's Manna in Wallingford, the Franciscan Home and Hospice Care in Meriden, Cheshire Community Food Pantry, and PAL of New Haven are just a few of the New Haven County charities that put your Appeal gift to great use.

According to ALISON CUNNINGHAM, CEO, "Innovation is born out of the need to create something new when other solutions fail, and Columbus House is committed to developing innovative programs that meet the ever changing needs of people who experience homelessness or are at risk."

SPIRITUAL WORKS OF MERCY

Spiritual Needs

The Gospel teaches us that Jesus tended to the spiritual well-being of all those to whom He ministered. Thus, it is vital that our spiritual needs are also fulfilled. Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting, forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently nourish us spiritually.

Throughout all their activities, our Catholic schools weave a strong faith tradition to guide students as children of God who respect the dignity of every person.

"There is great reason for optimism as both parishes and schools are reconfigured into more vital entities that fully serve their members while maintaining their operational viability. The process is not always easy, but if we keep that outcome in mind and our eyes fixed on the Lord Jesus, it will ultimately be worth every effort." — SR. MARY GRACE WALSH ASCJ, PH.D., PROVOST FOR EDUCATION, EVANGELIZATION AND CATECHESIS.

The Catholic Academy in Waterbury is accomplishing just that. MICHELE BANACH, ACADEMIC DEAN recently said parents are happy, children feel at home, and students show it: "It's not 'your' school, 'my' school. It's 'our' school."

Your support of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal is vital in providing the tuition assistance needed for families to send young children to Catholic schools across the Archdiocese.
