

Nurturing Seedlings

Community for Young Parents

My First Catholic Bible Wondering Guide

Here are some sample wondering statements that you can pose to your child as you read the Bible stories from this book. Remember the point is NOT to come up with answers to these statements, but rather to encourage a sense of wonder and awe in the mystery of God with your child. Wonder alongside your child to enjoy the mysteries of God together.

God Made the World

I wonder how many animals God made.

I wonder how much God loves us to give us so many beautiful plants and flowers.

Noah Built an Ark

I wonder how big that ark was that God built.

I wonder how Noah felt when God kept him and his family safe from the flood.

Abraham's Baby Son

I wonder how many stars God made in the sky.

I wonder how Abraham felt when God loved him so much to promise him a big family.

God's Plan for Joseph

I wonder how Joseph felt when God kept him safe.

I wonder how God looks after us each day.

Moses and the Princess

I wonder how Moses was feeling when he was floating down the river in a basket.

I wonder what God has planned for you.

David and the Giant

I wonder how David knew to trust God to help him.

I wonder how God helps us to not be afraid.

Daniel and the Lions

I wonder how big those lions were.

I wonder how Daniel felt when he saw that God was keeping him safe from the lions.

The First Christmas

I wonder how the shepherds felt when they learned about the birth of baby Jesus.

I wonder how much God loves us to give us Jesus.

Following a Star

I wonder how long it took the wise men to find Jesus.

I wonder what the wise men were thinking when they first saw Jesus.

Jesus Talked about God's Love

I wonder how many friends Jesus spoke to about God's love.

I wonder what it is like to be a friend of Jesus.

Jesus Calmed a Storm

I wonder how the twelve men felt during this storm.

I wonder how powerful Jesus is to be able to calm the stormy sea.

Jesus Helped People Who Were Sick

I wonder how these people felt when Jesus healed them.

I wonder how Jesus can help me when I am sad or hurting.

Jesus Fed a Huge Crowd of People

I wonder what that bread and fish tasted like.

I wonder what everyone was thinking when Jesus fed them the fish and bread.

Jesus Was Crucified and The First Easter (Always read these two stories together.)

I wonder how excited Jesus's friends were to see him again.

I wonder how I can be kind to people I know.

